As a parent:

I recognize that the chief purpose of Mt. Carmel Christian School is to provide a Christian setting for my child where Biblical truths and principles are taught and where high moral and academic standards are maintained. I agree to support the administration and faculty and to seek to support the school's philosophy and rules during my child's enrollment. I have read the philosophy and objectives of the school in the student handbook. I realize my agreement with the above and my support of the teachers and administration is critical for my child's spiritual and academic success at Mt. Carmel.
